LOW RAILROAD FARE TO FAIR

Agent Rice Secures Rate of One
Fare and a Third—Jim Wright
To Manage Fair Dinner

Excursion rates to the great K. of P. fair in Stanford next week on August 23, 24 and 25, have been granted by the L. & N. railroad and delegations from all points of the compass are expected here to see the big show. Local Agent J. S. Rice took up the matter with his road and secured a rate of one fare and a third from points between Stanford and Lebanon, Stanford and Richmond and Stanford and Corbin. The special fare applies to all round trip tickets and will be good on all trains coming into Stanford on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Arrangements were made last week by which J. H. Wright, of this city, will have charge of the dinner which the fair will spread each day, and this insures that a splendid meal will be served each day. Old ham, beaten biscuits, chicken and other delicacies will be on the menu. Mr. Wright will select his assistants from the K. P. boys and as he is a hustler and all round character, it is felt that he will have charge of this portion of the program means that there will be something good to eat.

A great deal of interest in the fair was manifested by court day visitors Monday. The Stanford fair is undoubtedly the best advertised fair to be held in a country town in the state this year. Everybody seemed to know about the fair and to remark: "You fellows must be going to have some fair this year the way everybody is helping it."

There is no doubt about there being a large number of show horses at the fair. Stalls for animals are being engaged by the score and the only trouble now is that there may not be enough stalls to go around. Everything points to a successful fair if the weather man will just do his part, all will be well.

The handsome catalogues issued in the L. J. office for the fair, which begins Wednesday, Aug. 23, are going like hot cakes. Hundreds have been mailed to those who have requested them and each mail brings more demands for them. Join the majority and write for one, if you have not already done so.

Three Wills Probated

R. C. Engleman Divides His Estate
Between Brother and Niece.

Three wills were probated in the Lincoln county court yesterday, which was the extent of the work done. They were the last will and testament of R. C. Engleman, E. C. Jordan and Mrs. Laura J. Hammonds.

Mr. Engleman's will was made on March 20, 1916, and was witnessed by W. L. McCarty and L. R. Hughes. It gives to his son, John W. Engleman $100; to his cousin, little James Helm Engleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Engleman, $100, and to Miss Pearl Gentry, another cousin, a similar amount. The residue of the estate, after the payment of debts and expenses, is divided equally between his brother, John W. Engleman, whom he makes his executor, and his niece, Mrs. Mary Robertson, who is the widow of John W. Engleman, Jr., and is now residing in Texas. The estate is valued at about $2,000.

Mr. Jordan's will states that after all of his just debts are paid that his property be given his widow and his brothers and sisters, his insurance policy, of course, going to his widow. The document was made on July 17th of this year and is witnessed by Dr. G. G. Perry and T. J. Hill, Jr.

Mrs. Hammonds bequeaths her property, real and personal, to her nephew, Matt Martin, during his life time and asks that after his death it be divided among his relatives. The will was made April 8, 1903, and T. J. Jennings and J. M. McCarty witnessed the signature.

Lancaster

For several reasons the entertainment by the Woman's Club for the benefit of the library was postponed from last Friday evening until the evening of the 25th. Mrs. H. C. Kauffman, chairman of the Library Department, reports a most excellent program, both local and imported talent to contribute to the exercises. Wheat is still showing an ascending price in the local market. Monday's price quoted by one of the leading grain firms being $1.40 a bushel. Corn is also indicating an upward tendency, recent purchasers having been receiving it at the price of $5 a barrel.

A number of typhoid and dysentery are reported by Lancaster doctors. Luther Smith, of the Sugar Creek section being a sufferer from the former disease, and Mrs. G. N. Ray, of the Judson district being prostrated by the last named malady.

Mr. Willie Prather, of the Nina locality is very ill from a spider bite on the ankle which occurred Friday afternoon. He had convulsions and two physicians have been attending him. The insect was of the black spider species with red markings.

Rye is also rapidly rising in price, a crop from a 38-acre tract having been recently sold at $1.25 per bushel.

Miss Mary Arnold has gone to visit Nicholasville kinpeople and will also visit Frankfort before returning.

Mrs. J. Roe Young is making a several weeks' visit to her son, Mr. Frank Young and wife in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Banks Hudson and Mrs. J. Rockwell Smith were here Friday afternoon for the funeral of the late M. D. Hughes.

Misses Mary and Jane Doty, Mrs. J. Bradford Jennings, Mrs. Frank B. Mabury and Mrs. M. O. Goodie composed a party of Lancaster women who took of the hospitality of Mrs. J. Rockwell Smith, at Danville last Thursday.

Mr. Homer W. Batson and little daughter of the B. City, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Batson and other relatives here.

Mr. A. F. Sanders and family, Mr. David C. Sanders, Mrs. Sanders, little daughter and son motored over to Lexington and enjoyed a day at the Blue Grass Fair.

Mrs. J. M. Frazier, of Maysville, comes Thursday night to spend a week here at her girlhood home with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Lloyd.

Miss Annie Goodloe, a teacher at Talladega, Ala., and Miss Virginia Goodloe, an instructor in the William Argo Institute at Colorado Springs, have been here on a visit to their father, Mr. E. C. Jordan.

Mrs. W. S. Elkin and Miss Jennie Duncan motored over to Stanford every other day to see their sister, Mrs. Charlotte Warren, who has not been so well during the past few days.

Mrs. W. A. Price was hostess at a very enjoyable affair given last Saturday at the fair grounds. Miss Viola Beagle, of Georgetown, Mrs. Ray O'Flinn and four little children, Mr. F. H. Eubank and Mrs. Eubank were the honorees of the open-air function.

The party given by James Siler last Saturday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McCarty on the Crab Orchard pike, was quite enjoyable, but the rain hindered some of the young belles and beaux from being in attendance. A delicious course of refreshments was one of the attractions.

Mr. Fleece Robinson, of this city, and business partner, Mr. Jas. Warfield, of Georgia, attended the Lexington Fair last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Stormes visited Mrs. J. Rockwell Smith at her Danville home last Friday.

Folks From Lincoln

Got Their Share of Blues at Mt. Vernon's Splendid Fair.

Quite a number of Lincoln county people attended the Mt. Vernon fair and some of them took stock. As usual they were successful, Sterling Curtis, who probably the most popular of the fair, secured a number of good horses and won nearly every time he entered one of them. Bun Gaines had no stock there but a mule that was sired by his noted jack was a big winner of the blue ticks. The fair was well attended and the show of stock was all that could have been expected. The crowd Thursday, the largest in point of attendance, was estimated at 2,500 to 3,000. There were many attractions, free and otherwise, and the occasion was one long to be remembered. It was something like a big picnic, where all went in for a good time and had it. The officers and directors were exceedingly courteous to their guests and did all in their power for the delegation. Edgar Albright, editor of the Signal, was untiring in looking after the crowd, the show rings and everything in and around the fair grounds. He seemed to possess the peculiar faculty of being in two or three places at the same time and doing good work in all of them.

W. H. Fish, the efficient and clever secretary, ought to be re-elected by an overwhelming majority for another year, or just as many years as he will take the office. He is the right man for the place. Quick, obliging, painstaking and clever, he made a secretary satisfactory to all and at the same time made friends of all with whom he came in contact.

It was a most creditable exhibition and while the people of Rockcastle generally are to be congratulated for their work in making it so, the Messrs. Albright and Fish should have the lion's share of the credit and have no doubt been given it. It was the L. J.'s intention to print the list of those who got the premiums, but a lack of space forbids.

Miss Bertha Jackson

Accepts Place at Head of Expression Department of School.

A telegram from Miss Bertha L. Jackson to the Stanford School Board late last week, conveyed the information that she has accepted the tender of the position as Expression teacher in the local school, which was made several weeks ago by Miss Esther Burch, resigned the position. The telegram was sent from Glendale, Cal. where Miss Jackson has been for the summer. The fact that she will be a member of the faculty of the coming year will be a pleasing news to her many friends. She gave great satisfaction when in charge of this department several years ago, and will be cordially welcomed back to Stanford. Supt. W. C. Wilson and the faculty (formerly Miss Gastineau) are expected here after their bridal trip in the east, and preparation will begin for the opening of school about Sept. 1st. W. R. Todd, who will have charge of the high school work, has come from his home in Columbia and will be a strong addition to the faculty. Prospects for a most successful school year are said to be very bright, and probably the largest attendance in the history of the local educational institution is looked for.

GOOD WOMAN GONE

Mrs. Lela Padgett, aged 33 years, died Tuesday at Cincinnati. The body was brought to her old home near Wayne, where funeral services were held at the Pleasant Point church. Rev. J. A. Singleton conducted the services over the mortal remains of this good woman. Mrs. Padgett was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zachariah Padgett, and the wife of Curt Padgett, who with five children, survives. She had long been a member of the Baptist church and was a splendid woman in every way, a devoted wife and mother. A host of friends will mourn that she is no more.

The Sick Folks

News has been received from Danville that Hence Overstreet and Ben Jennings, typhoid fever patients, are holding their own satisfactorily.

Mrs. Fred Gannett has been on the sick list for the past few weeks her many friends regret to know.

His many friends here are hoping for a speedy recovery for Commonwealth's Attorney Emmet Puryear, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Danville hospital last week. He is said to be doing as well as can be expected.

Logan McCall, who was laid up for a day or so when he was vaccinated with the typhoid serum, is able to be out and at work again. A great many have been vaccinated here but Mr. McCall is the only one reported whom it "took" with so hard.

Mrs. John H. Shanks was taken to Louisville Sunday afternoon to a hospital, to receive treatment for what is feared may prove to be typhoid fever. She has been nursing her mother, Mrs. Lelia Cook, whose illness has been pronounced typhoid. Mr. Shanks came Saturday from their home in Columbus, Ga., and went on to Louisville with his wife.

10 Cents Paid For Hogs

Highest Price of Season Given By Buyer in East End of County.

The highest price paid for hogs in Lincoln county in a long time was paid in the East End late last week, when John T. Rigby bought of J. H. Thompson, of the Preachersville section, a bunch of seven hogs, that averaged 125 pounds at 10 cents a pound. They were extra fine bar-bared and a week before the dealer had been offered $15.00 for the lot. They are well worth the figure that he paid for them.

Bub Engleman No More

Well Known Stanford Man's Sufferings Relieved By Death.

R. C. Engleman, known to his friends as "Bub" died at his apartment in the Odd Fellow's Building Friday night of paralysis, aged 48. Some months ago he suffered a stroke of the brain, and from that time he was in a helpless condition. His condition had been alarming since then and his friends and relatives were prepared for the announcement of his death. The deceased was a son of R. C. Engleman, who died about five years ago. His mother was called away many years before. A brother, John W. Engleman, and a sister, Mrs. J. S. Hundley survive. The former came from Lexington to his bedside as soon as he heard of his serious illness and remained with the patient. Mrs. Hundley also gave her brother all of the attention possible but they and his physicians could not arrest the disease which was so rapidly gnawing at his life and was on the road Thursday trying to catch on to some of its tricks. He and J. W. Riggs are the latest to join the gang of autoists. There are others talking of purchasing machines in the near future.

Miss Elsie Hane is at Brodhead, the guest of Mrs. Mary Albright.

The South Kentucky Association will meet here Tuesday morning, August 15th when the town will be turned over to the Baptists to use as they wish. There will be visitors from all points of the compass and a number of able preachers are expected. Should Pastor Beagle be absent, Rev. K. G. Martin will be here to welcome the visitors.

Dr. Thompson, of Missouri is expected here this week to be the guest of E. L. Godbey, on the Danville pike. He and family are making the trip thru in an auto.

No Sore Spots In Casey

Democrats Are Loyal Down There And Are Strong For Ticket.

Middleburg, Aug. 15, 1916. The late primary was the quietest affair of the kind ever held here. Everybody was in a good humor and not a loud word was heard during the whole day. The vote was the highest ever known since this was a voting place, only 38 votes being cast. Montgomery received 57, Helm got 36, Neat 16 and Davison 29. There was mighty poor picking for the floaters hence he was conspicuous by his absence. The result in the contest for the Democratic nomination was so decisive that we hear no kick whatever. There are but a few renegades among Casey Democrats and Harvey will get the full strength of the party in November.

Republicans seemed to take less interest in the primary than Democrats, knowing that there was absolutely no show for either of their candidates in the final contest, in fact none of them seemed to regard the candidates of the two aspirants with any degree of seriousness, but more as a joke than a reality. They have gained some notoriety however, which perhaps was the object after all.

Jim Coulter went to Liberty last Wednesday to assist in canvassing the primary returns. Jim was a warm supporter of Charlie Montgomery in the race but will put in some good work for Harvey Helm during the next two and half months. He is not of the bolting variety of Democrats and his work for the party is always influential.

Judge Lincoln Walls is now the owner of a new Ford auto and was on the road Thursday trying to catch on to some of its tricks. He and J. W. Riggs are the latest to join the gang of autoists. There are others talking of purchasing machines in the near future.

Miss Elsie Hane is at Brodhead, the guest of Mrs. Mary Albright.

The South Kentucky Association will meet here Tuesday morning, August 15th when the town will be turned over to the Baptists to use as they wish. There will be visitors from all points of the compass and a number of able preachers are expected. Should Pastor Beagle be absent, Rev. K. G. Martin will be here to welcome the visitors.

Prominent Mt. Salem Citizen Gone

Lincoln county lost a good citizen when John Milford Eubanks died at his home in the Mt. Salem section Friday night of cancer of the face. He was a quiet, industrious farmer and very seldom came to town or went anywhere. He loved home and spent every moment there he could.

He was a devout member of the Baptist church. His wife, who was Miss Juretha Tinsley, of Casey, and three sons and a daughter survive the gentleman. He was closely related to the several families of his name on an extensive scale. The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2:30 after comforting words by Dr. M. D. Early. Mr. J. C. McClary made a brief talk at the home Sunday morning.

James H. Alcorn Dies at Lakeland.

The remains of James H. Alcorn were brought to Lakeland, where he had been a guard in the asylum for many years, Saturday night and taken to the home of K. S. Alcorn. Sunday they were taken to Houstonville and laid to rest in the cemetery near Wayne, where funeral services were held at the Pleasant Point church. Rev. J. A. Singleton conducted the services over the mortal remains of this good woman. Mrs. Padgett was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zachariah Padgett, and the wife of Curt Padgett, who with five children, survives. She had long been a member of the Baptist church and was a splendid woman in every way, a devoted wife and mother. A host of friends will mourn that she is no more.

"Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel troubles with good satisfaction and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere.

PUBLIC SALE

Having decided to move back to town, I will sell at Public Auction, at 1:30 o'clock on TUESDAY, AUGUST 22nd, 1916 at my farm, located 3 miles from Stanford, 2 miles from Rowland, on the Goshen pike, the following property to-wit:

Daily I. J. For The Fair

Will Be Published Next Week By Stanford's Woman's Club.

A Daily Interior Journal will be issued in Stanford each day during the Knight's of Pythias fair here next week, August 23, 24 and 25, as usual. The paper will be published under the auspices and management of the Woman's Club of Stanford. This insures that it will be an edition far above the average, and a credit to both the community and its publishers.

Committees have already been appointed by the Woman's Club to call on local business men and solicit advertising for the three issues of the fair. Another committee has been named to have charge of the editorial work on behalf of the club, and this committee proposes to publish quite a lot of matter of interest to those who are familiar with the great work this woman's organization has done for Stanford. Probably no organization has accomplished more in the brief space of its history than has the Woman's Club in upbuilding Stanford and its promoting its general welfare, and the members of the club believe that they will have the heartiest co-operation of every business interest in the issue of their daily paper. Several thousand copies will be distributed free of charge over the fair grounds and the city each day during the fair, and from all indications the Daily Interior Journal this year will be bigger and better than ever.

Bright Buys Ballou Farm

Cashier W. M. Bright, of the Lincoln County National Bank bought the farm of Ballou, on the Danville pike, about two miles northwest of Stanford, last week. There are about 150 acres in the place, which adjoins Mr. Bright's famous "Bright's Inn Farm," and the addition of this handsome general to his holdings gives Mr. Bright an acreage of about 300, nearly all very high class land. The price paid for the Ballou farm was not made public. Mr. Bright gets seedling privies at once and full possession on next January 1st. Rev. Ballou, who has made this farm his home for close to 40 years, says that he has not yet made plans for the future.

Latest War News

An important advance on the Somme front northwest of Pozieres was announced Sunday by the British War Office. The British pushed forward their lines 300 or 400 yards over a front of nearly a mile. That the French have made further progress southeast of Maurepas, in the Somme sector, was also announced by the French War Office.

The Austrians are in full retreat along the entire front, their purpose being to set up a new position about twenty miles west of their old lines in an effort to escape the Russian trap that has threatened for weeks. They evacuated without a battle and are being hard pressed. The Russians have taken Mariampol, in Galicia, seven miles southeast of Halicz, the town of Progiacy and several villages along the Upper Sereth River.

A German aeroplane dropped some bombs on Rheims, destroying the civil hospital and killing six persons.

PULASKI STARTS PIKE WORK

Pulaski has started its state-aid pike work from Somerset, on the Lincoln line via Eubank. Work on the Pulaski county roads is going on at a lively rate now. Contractors with a large number of workmen and machinery arrived Thursday to begin work on the road between Somerset and Laurel county and Somerset and Lincoln county. Work is now going on on four county roads leading out of Somerset. The entire contract for building sixty-miles of pike was awarded to the Connelly Construction Company, of Somerset, for $240,000.

STATE REPORTS AS TO CROPS

Commissioner of Agriculture Cohen estimates the yield of the wheat crop this year at nine bushels to the acre. The Hessian fly greatly damaged the wheat in many localities and the average is only three bushels to the acre. Crop reporters state that the corn crop of this state has been greatly damaged during July by excessive dry weather. The condition of the corn crop is given at 90 per cent of the average crop. It is estimated oats will make an average of 17 bushels and rye ten bushels.

The acreage of burley tobacco is given at 92 per cent, condition at 88 per cent, while dark tobacco acreage shows 93 per cent, condition 90 per cent. The condition of hemp is given at 96 per cent.

Grasses are generally good, clover being given at 92 per cent, orchard grass at 91 per cent. Cow peas and soy beans are both given at 90 per cent.

The State average of the second cutting of alfalfa is given at one and one half tons per acre. The present condition of alfalfa shows at 85 per cent.

Garden conditions show at 89 per cent, while potatoes are given at the same.

The condition of the live stock is very good and but little or no disease is reported to be prevalent. Some hog cholera exists in localities. Reports give the condition of live stock as follows:

The condition of poultry is reported as follows: Chickens, 92 per cent; turkeys, 84 per cent; ducks, 88 per cent.

COFFEY AND PEPPLES LAND

Former To Continue As Clerk Of Frankfort Pen While Latter To Manage Edwille Farm.

His many friends here are glad to learn that Capt. Joe Lynn Coffey, who has made a most efficient clerk of the State Reformatory or penitentiary at Frankfort, for the past four years, is to be retained by the new administration. Capt. Coffey was a loyal friend of Gov. Stanley and did good work for him and deserves reappointment.

Another prominent Lincoln county democrat is understood to be slated for a good position under the administration. He is John C. Pepples, of the Goshen section, who is to be made Superintendent of the State Farm connected with the penitentiary at Edwille in western Kentucky. Representative W. C. Gooch, who proved an able ally of the Stanley Administration forces in the last legislature, is understood to have landed this place for Mr. Pepples. The latter is an experienced and capable farmer in every way and will make a first class man for the place. His son, Ernest Pepples holds a nice position, on the staff of the Reform School at Greendale, and it is understood that he, too will hold on to the new regime.

The new appointments by the prison commission will not be announced until next month but at a meeting the other day in Frankfort it was decided that Mr. Stanley, who will be dropped from the payroll, John B. Chilton will remain as warden at Edwille, and with him Deputy Wardens C. B. Miller R. W. Johns and C. S. Glann, the latter to become superintendent of the State Farm. Albertson of Mayfield, will become a deputy. Chaplain J. A. Holton will retire and Rev. J. D. Woodson, of Lyon, is tipped for the place.

At the Frankfort prison, T. Mack Phyllian, aide to Gov. Stanley, will succeed A. J. G. Wells as warden, and W. S. Hawkins of Carrollton and George Ireland, of Frankfort, will become deputy wardens. Deputy Warden George Kazez and Assistant Deputy Warden T. G. Newman, as Mrs. J. H. Kennedy retire as one of the matrons and will probably be succeeded by Mrs. Carrie Smith, of Louisville.

Deputy Wardens Johns, of Edwille, was in charge of the convicts who left Sunday morning for Bell county to work on the roads.

The prison guards who are said to be slated for the "can" Sept. 1st are: Nass Atkins, Scott county; A. C. Conis, Knott county; W. R. Dunn, Boyle county; S. D. Duvall, Owen county; Ira Huette, Frankfort; H. K. Mellon, Madison; T. J. Muelken and William Packwood, Louisville; C. M. Morris, Shelby; E. C. Rogers, Madison; O. C. Scott, Woodford; W. T. Underwood, Jessamine; T. M. Wells, Madison; Wm. Green, Frankfort; J. T. Holsenback, Pulaski; J. W. Bobbitt, Henry; J. R. Bobb, Green Ed Rose, Powell and G. S. Wilson, Clark.

It is understood that Alfred Farmer, of this city, has been promised a position as guard by local friends of Stanley, and will soon be appointed to the place or turn it over to one of his friends.

THIRD DIVIDEND DECLARED

The I. J. inadvertently omitted mention last week of the third dividend which the First National Bank declared for the stockholders of the defunct State Bank & Trust Company. This dividend was for 10 per cent making 30 per cent in all which has been distributed among the stockholders of the State Bank, and there still a lot of assets yet to be realized upon. Cashier H. C. Baughman, who represents the state banking department, and other officers of the First National Bank, are handling the affairs of the defunct bank for the best interests of the stockholders, and hope to make as large a distribution as possible.

Democratic Ticket

For President—Woodrow Wilson.
For V. Pres.—T. R. Marshall.
For Congress—Harvey Helm.

Going upon the assumption that Judge Flem D. Sampson, of Barbourville, has won the republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, which seems probable, and which is tantamount to election, the Middleboro Three States congratulates the little city of Barbourville, Knox county upon the statesmen who call it home. The list comprises a Congressman, Lieut. Governor, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Circuit Judge, State Senator and Representative, which is certainly "going some" for a little mountain village.

Who ever saw hogs sell for 10 cents a pound in Lincoln county when a Republican administration was in charge of affairs at Washington? Read in another column of today's paper and see what they are bringing with Woodrow Wilson at the helm. Do the farmers and hog raisers want to make a change with hogs selling at that figure now? We rather think not.

Wheat sold in Stanford Thursday at $1.35 a bushel. Too bad on the poor wheat growers. Of course Woodrow Wilson will be blamed and they will all vote against him. But don't forget that it was selling at 75 cents under Taft, the last republican president.

Mr. W. R. Adams, of Salem, Ind., is dead and his wife is still in the asylum. He leaves five children with out the care of a kind and affectionate father or mother. Mr. Adams was a good man and always made many friends wherever he went. To know him was to love him and we wish to say to the bereaved family their our heartfelt sympathy is extended to them so that they might cheer up and remember that his home is now with his Savior where pain is no more.

Mr. Fisher Dalling and daughter, Miss Ethel, Hazel Patch are visiting relatives here.

Mr. A. A. Wren is doing some sawing at his mill now.

Rev. J. G. Livingston will begin a meeting at this place on the 22nd inst.

Mrs. Gorge White has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Smith, at Woodstock.

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months. I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles. Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me. At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing. I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My eight has increased, and I look the picture of health. HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Denison, Texas.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told my husband if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told him to get my medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and after taking the first three doses I began to improve. I continued its use, and I have never had any female trouble since. I feel that I owe my life to you and your remedies. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. LOWERY, 419 W. Monterey Street, Denison, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ills, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.

and I are going back for a couple of weeks about Oct. 25th on her birthday." The L. J. will appreciate it also if its Bowen correspondent would send in a letter every once in a while.

An article by Mrs. Fisher Herring, of Preachersville and Lancaster, on the home of Colonel William Whitley near Crab Orchard, now known as the Pennington place, with a series of specially made photographs of the interior by Miss Sacray, has been accepted by The House Beautiful, a Boston magazine. This is one of the most interesting houses in the State. The editor of the magazine expresses admiration for the sort of rude elegance of the place, suggestive of the old houses about Philadelphia. At the age of sixty five Colonel Whitley joined the Kentucky forces of the War of 1812, losing his life in the Battle of Thames. This district sent to the war of its choicest manhood. The Garrard County men were led by General William Jennings, (great-grandfather to Mrs. Herring), his father, Captain William Jennings, of Virginia, with six brothers having been soldiers of the Revolution.

News has been received that Robert Beck is on the border of Mexico. He is an operator in the army and is climbing to the top of the ladder very fast. He has been located at Shafter, Texas, for some time but is now stationed at Candelaria. This is a town on the banks of the Rio Grande River and he states in a letter that there is a Mexican army post just across the river and that they can be seen during guard every night. He also says that the Mexicans hate Uncle Sam's boys very much but are so cowardly that the only way they fight is to hide and shoot you in the back. There are many wild animals in the mountains there including, bear, lion, deer and many others but our soldiers are not allowed to go out except in parties to hunt for fresh meat for fear of being "bushwhacked" by the sneaky Mexicans. Bob has a host of warm friends "back home" who will welcome the news of his progress and who will extend their heartiest wishes for a successful future for him.
